

ALDI Australia launches range of Christmas hams and frozen

15 November 2023 | News

Every year ALDI works with a range of dedicated Australian pork producers to create a range of high-quality, great-tasting options all at affordable prices

Every year ALDI works with a range of dedicated Australian pork producers to create a range of high-quality, great-tasting options all at affordable prices

If generous helpings of turkey and ham sounds like the ideal Christmas feast, ALDI Australia has it covered with plenty of delicious options that will leave Aussies (and their wallets) stuffed with goodness!

Quality products at the best prices are what ALDI does best. Working closely with supplier partners around the country, ALDI is bringing a selection of Aussie hams to Aussie Christmas tables this year in a variety of sizes all at affordable prices.

Margo Andrae Australian Pork Ltd CEO says it's important for customers to know what to look for when buying their Christmas ham and recommends looking for the Australian PorkMark logo on the pack to be sure you're supporting Australian farmers.

An Aussie ham is at the top of many families' Christmas shopping lists. Every year ALDI works with a range of dedicated Australian pork producers to create a range of high-quality, great-tasting options all at affordable prices, so you can enjoy that extra slice knowing you're supporting our farmers and regional communities. All the Christmas hams available at ALDI this year are made using Aussie-grown pork, the perfect pairing for every festive table.

Familiar favourites are back this year including the Australian Half Leg Ham at the low price of $7.99 p/kg, the Specially Selected Premium Triple Smoked Half Leg Ham ($13.99 p/kg), and the infamous don't knock it-till-you-try it Farmwood Turducken Roast with Cranberry and Apple Stuffing ($29.99). ALDI has added new products to set your tastebuds tingling, including a Crackling Ham ($19.99 p/kg) and a Triple Smoked Quarter Portion Leg Ham ($14.99 p/kg).