

Union Bank of Philippines and S&R launch Co-branded credit card

12 December 2023 | News

A co-branded credit card that will make grocery shopping, dining, and lifestyle spending more rewarding

A co-branded credit card that will make grocery shopping, dining, and lifestyle spending more rewarding

Union Bank of the Philippines (UnionBank) has teamed up with S&R, the largest membership-only grocery chain in the country, for a co-branded credit card that will make your grocery shopping, dining, and lifestyle spending more rewarding.

That's not all. For a limited time only, S&R will have a special launch offer for shoppers who will apply for the new UnionBank S&R credit card. Those who apply via S&R staff in any S&R branch and complete their application will be rewarded with 1 whole 18" S&R pizza for free. Successful applicants can choose from any of S&R's classic pizza flavours: Combo, Pepperoni, Cheese, and Garlic & Shrimp Pizza.

The application is fully digital and takes as fast as 5 minutes. Shoppers simply need to be an active S&R member and one valid government-issued ID.

There are two easy ways to apply for the card: in-store and online. For in-store applications, you may visit the designated booth at the S&R branch of your choice, and you will be assisted by a representative. If you want to apply online, you may visit this link: <http://www.unionbankph.com/r/srpr>