

KallÃ, launches Thai curry veggie cakes

14 May 2024 | News

Veggie Cakes contain no preservatives, artificial colours, or flavours, just pure, natural goodness

Veggie Cakes contain no preservatives, artificial colours, or flavours, just pure, natural goodness

KallÃ, the healthier snacking trailblazer, is adding to its popular Veggie Cakes range with an exotic new flavour to excite and delight taste buds.

Introducing new Thai Curry Veggie Cakes, the moreish protein-packed snack that delivers an irresistible taste with every bite.

Infused with the rich and aromatic essence of Thai Green Curry, these high-fibre and gluten-free snacks are made from natural ingredients, including protein-packed peas and lentils.

KallÃ, Thai Curry Veggie Cakes are perfect for a lunch or snack, from your sofa, at your desk, as part of a picnic or as an appetiser. Pair them with your favourite dips and toppings for an elevated snacking experience. For anyone looking to discover their new Asian-inspired snack obsession, KallÃ, has you covered.

Aligned with KallÃ,â??s wider range, Veggie Cakes contain no preservatives, artificial colours, or flavours, just pure, natural goodness. The brand is on a mission to redefine healthier snacking, proving that nutritious food can be exciting and packed full of flavour. With KallÃ, there is no compromise on taste. Instead, you can expect vibrant and delicious flavours made with natural ingredients and minimal processing.