Zend Coffee, known for its finely roasted functional and classic coffees, announces it has becomeÂ Zend Wellness, representing a greater emphasis on the health and wellness space and all products contributing to promoting optimal health and wellbeing through the use of functional ingredients. One such product is the brandâ??s new signature product launching,Â MetaGlow Collagen.

The marine collagen peptide complex is sustainably sourced, sugar and caffeine-free, with ingredients clinically supported to reduce weight, stress and the appearance of wrinkles and promote joint health. Simply measure out one scoop of MetaGlow Collagen, add the unflavored powder to your favourite food or beverage, and enjoy!

â??Adding a single scoop of MetaGlow Collagen to your daily routine simply becomes a habit, helping you look and feel your best,â?• said Jayson Miller, co-founder, Zend Wellness. â??The science-backed collagen includes three trademarked ingredients clinically studied to support stress reduction, weight management, and healthy hair, skin, nails, and joints.â?
