

World Whiskey Society introduces limited edition bourbon Whiskey

22 January 2025 | News

This limited-edition bourbon expands the Doc Holliday portfolio, which includes 7, 8, 10, 11 and 15-year-old expressions

This limited-edition bourbon expands the Doc Holliday portfolio, which includes 7, 8, 10, 11 and 15-year-old expressions

World Whiskey Society (WWS), renowned for its ultra-premium portfolio of rare whiskey expressions, announced the launch of its latest release: Doc Holliday Bottled in Bond Straight Bourbon Whiskey. This limited-edition Bourbon expands the Doc Holliday portfolio, which includes 7, 8, 10, 11 and 15-year-old expressions.

Crafted with precision, Doc Holliday Bottled in Bond Straight Bourbon Whiskey exemplifies the artistry of distillation. Made at a single distillery during one distilling season, this bourbon is aged for no less than four years in a federally bonded warehouse. Each bottle stands as a testament to WWS' unwavering dedication to quality.

Bottled at precisely 100 proof, this Bourbon offers a sensory journey from start to finish. The nose is greeted with a harmonious medley of caramelised apples and sweet maraschino cherry, complemented by hints of clove, nutmeg, and freshly roasted pecans. On the palate, expect a smooth and velvety texture that reveals layers of caramel, apple pie, and sweet cherry, accented by a gentle warming spice. A deep vanilla sweetness, balanced by savoury nuttiness, offers a toasted, buttery flavour that lingers into a long and refined finish.