NFFOODS Spectrum
perspectives on food technologies & business
ASIA

Australiaâ??s Summer Land wins gold medals at Sydney Royal Cheese & Dairy Produce show

03 March 2025 | News

This recognition further establishes Summer Land Camels as a trailblazer in the Australian camel dairy industry

This recognition further establishes Summer Land Camels as a trailblazer in the Australian camel dairy industry

Summer Land Camels, a leading Australian camel dairy producer, has achieved remarkable success at the Sydney Royal Cheese & Dairy Produce Show, earning two Gold Medals and the highly coveted Australian Cheeseboard Perpetual Trophy.

The companyâ??s pure Camel Milk received a distinguished Gold Medal, while its artisanal camel cheese not only secured Gold but was also honoured with the esteemed Australian Cheeseboard Perpetual Trophy. This recognition further establishes Summer Land Camels as a trailblazer in the Australian camel dairy industry.

As one of Australiaâ??s most renowned food and beverage competitions, the Sydney Royal Cheese & Dairy Produce Show attracts the nationâ??s top dairy producers and is judged by industry experts. The awards celebrate outstanding quality, flavour, and craftsmanship, qualities reflected in Summer Land Camels' exceptional dairy products.

According to the companyâ??s LinkedIn post, this latest achievement brings the companyâ??s total award count to an impressive 97 since 2018.

As demand for alternative dairy products continues to rise, Summer Land Camels remains at the forefront of sustainable and ethical farming, consistently delivering high-quality camel milk and cheese.