Huel, an industry leader for high-protein nutritionally complete meals, is making healthy living even more convenient with the launch of its new Daily Greens Ready-to-Drink (RTD). This innovative beverage builds on the success of Huel's popular Daily Greens Powder by offering many of the same benefits, just now in a ready-to-drink, lightly carbonated, refreshing drink format, perfect for life on the go.

Packed with 42 vitamins, minerals, and superfoods, along with adaptogens and 4 grams of dietary fibre, Huel's Daily Greens RTD offers powerful greens in every sip for an easy on-the-go nutrition boost. With key nutrients like iron, vitamin B12, and vitamin C, this supergreens drink supports mental clarity, immunity, gut health, and sustained energy. Plus, Huel Daily Greens RTD is naturally rich in electrolytes and antioxidants, contains no artificial sweeteners, has only 1 gram of sugar and just 25 calories per can. Available in three vibrant flavours - Apple, Cucumber & Mint, Peach & Hibiscus, and Blueberry, Lemon & Thyme - Huel Daily Greens RTD is designed for both convenience and performance, making it easier than ever to effortlessly maintain your daily wellness routine.

"At Huel, we're always finding ways to make balanced nutrition simpler and more enjoyable," said James McMaster, CEO of Huel. "With our new Daily Greens Ready-to-drink, we're transforming a category traditionally dominated by powders by launching this convenient, great-tasting beverage. It's a refreshing twist on daily nutrition, now in a lightly sparkling, ready-to-drink format that fits seamlessly into your day. It's not just another wellness drink; it's a smarter, faster way to get complete daily nutrition."
