Agrizy Wellness, one of India's largest manufacturers of herbal extracts and a fast-growing leader in nutraceuticals and personal care, will be participating in Vitafoods Asia 2025 in Bangkok. The event will serve as a platform for the company to demonstrate its innovation pipeline and global ambitions in the health and wellness industry.

At the event, Agrizy Wellness will be presenting its diverse portfolio, ranging from natural botanical extracts and branded liposomal delivery systems to advanced nutraceutical formulations and collagen solutions. The company will also highlight its expertise in cosmetic innovations, as well as its private label and contract manufacturing services, underscoring its commitment to providing comprehensive, end-to-end offerings for global clients.

Speaking about the event, Dr. S. Vijayakumar, CEO of Wellness, said: "Vitafoods Asia 2025 marks the first time we are presenting our innovations outside India. Backed by our growing R&D infrastructure and advanced delivery systems, we're focused on setting new standards in how natural wellness products are developed and trusted while building global partnerships."

With Southeast Asia emerging as a key growth market for functional ingredients and natural health products, Agrizy Wellness aims to strengthen its global footprint, foster collaborations, and reinforce its role as a trusted provider of pure and natural nutraceutical and personal care solutions.
