

Moët Hennessy India appoints Siddharth Suri as Managing Director

29 September 2025 | News

In his new role, Siddharth will be at the helm of Moët Hennessy's iconic portfolio in India, including Dom Pérignon, Moët & Chandon, Veuve Clicquot, Hennessy, Glenmorangie, Belvedere, Chandon and Volcan

In his new role, Siddharth will be at the helm of Moët Hennessy's iconic portfolio in India, including Dom Pérignon, Moët & Chandon, Veuve Clicquot, Hennessy, Glenmorangie, Belvedere, Chandon and Volcan

Moët Hennessy India, a subsidiary of French luxury leader LVMH- Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton, announced the appointment of Siddharth Suri as Managing Director, India. This strategic appointment comes at a pivotal moment in Moët

Hennessy India's journey as the company accelerates its growth ambitions and strengthens its leadership in the country's rapidly evolving luxury wines and spirits market.

In his new role, Siddharth will be at the helm of Moët Hennessy's iconic portfolio in India, including Dom Pérignon, Moët & Chandon, Veuve Clicquot, Hennessy, Glenmorangie, Belvedere, Chandon and Volcan. He will be responsible for shaping the company's long-term growth strategy, driving consumer-centric innovation, and deepening the cultural resonance of Moët Hennessy's brands with India's new generation of luxury consumers, whilst building on the company's legacy of excellence and innovation.

With over 24 years of extensive experience in the FMCG and Wines & Spirits industries, Siddharth brings proven expertise in business transformation, market development, and scaling high-performing teams across domestic, travel retail, and international markets. He has held senior leadership roles at PepsiCo, Pernod Ricard, Moët Hennessy, Diageo, and, most recently, The Coca-Cola Company (HCCB), where he pioneered the Ready-to-Drink (RTD) alcoholic beverages category in India, shaping an entirely new consumer segment.

Siddharth is no stranger to Moët Hennessy India- during his earlier tenure as Sales Director for India and South Asia (Domestic and Travel Retail), he played a pivotal role in strengthening the company's presence and expanding its presence across key markets. His return marks a full-circle moment, underscoring both his deep understanding of the business and his vision for its future.