Supple Tek, World's largest exporter of basmati rice for the last 9 years and India's 5-Star Export House, has been honored by the Federation of Indian Export Organizations (FIEO) for its outstanding achievements. Supple Tek received its 6th Gold Award and very first Silver Award from FIEO, which is a noteworthy accomplishment and a cherry on top of the company's remarkable export career.

Supple Tek's philosophy "Grains of Honesty," which highlights the company's core values of quality assurance, transparency, purity and long-term collaborations along the agri value chain. By upholding its commitment to providing authentic and premium Basmati rice to customers all around the world, the brand continues to gain credibility in everything from seed selection and ethical sourcing to international exports.

Supple Tek and the Federation of Indian Export Organizations (FIEO) have maintained a solid and forward-thinking relationship throughout the years, based on a shared dedication to bolstering India's export ecosystem and advancing excellence in international commerce.

"Receiving consecutive honors from FIEO is a testament to our team's relentless efforts, our farmer partnerships, and our unwavering focus on quality and integrity. This accolade encourages us even more to keep introducing the world, the aroma of authentic Indian Basmati," said Ramneek Singh, Chairman and Managing Director, Supple Tek.

This long-standing partnership highlights a common goal of growth via integrity, where Supple Tek's "Grains of Honesty" concept is complemented by FIEO's position as India's top export promotion organization. Their cooperation shows how export organizations and industry leaders can work together to promote global competitiveness, inclusive growth, and long-term value for India's export business. With this accomplishment, Supple Tek reaffirms its steadfast commitment to its values of quality, transparency and shared growth along the value chain while bolstering India's standing as a global leader in Basmati rice exports.
