MondelÄ?z International appoints Luca Zaramella as CFO

25 June 2018 | News

MondelÄ?z International has appointed its senior vice-president of corporate finance Luca Zaramella as its new chief financial officer (CFO), effective from 1 August 2018.

Zaramella has held several roles at MondelÄ?z over a 20-year career at the company.

MondelÄ?z International has appointed its senior vice-president of corporate finance Luca Zaramella as its new chief financial officer (CFO), effective from 1 August 2018.

Zaramella has held several roles at MondelÄ?z over a 20-year career at the company, and he will now succeed Brian Gladden in the role as Gladden is moving on after 10 years as a public company CFO.

Zaramella has held several senior roles at the company over the last four years, including corporate controller, treasurer and global head of financial planning & analysis, and MondelÄ?z claims that these roles have prepared him for this role.
